JBWere appoints Robert White as Head of Advice QLD

JBWere, a leading provider of private wealth management and investment services in Australia and New Zealand, announced that Robert White has been appointed Head of Advice in Queensland.

Prior to joining JBWere Mr White was Managing Director of HFA Asset Management Limited, which subsequently became Certitude Global Investments. He has extensive experience in asset management, markets and private wealth advice having worked in financial services in Australia and the UK.

As Head of Advice QLD Mr White will be responsible for leading JBWere's Queensland operations including adviser recruitment and client acquisition.

JBWere National Head of Advice Matt Stovold said Mr White would build awareness of JBWere among Queensland private investors, corporations and the community.

"Robert's background in strategic leadership and people management, along with his strong investment and markets experience, made him the obvious choice for this role.

"Robert has established business connections in the Queensland community, which will allow him to quickly increase awareness of JBWere and support our advisers looking to expand their networks."

Mr White's appointment takes immediate effect.
